

The Waldorf was the place for the middle class to dine. The pork chop meal in the following ad may have cost only 50 cents, but that was the equivalent of a half-hour's wages. Using the $40-50k/year "average" wage* of 2010, that's like paying $8 - $12 for that meal.

SERVED ALL DAY THURSDAY

BREADED

PORK CHOPS

TOMATO SAUCE — MIXED GREEN SALAD
CREAMY MASHED POTATOES — ROLLS & BUTTER

50c

WALDORF APPLE PIE ..... 15c

90 GOLDEN HILL STREET

Waldorf
CAFETERIAS

*Note: My income averages come from both calculating tools at <http://politicalcalculations.blogspot.com/2008/01/remodeling-average-wage-in-us.html>

Click-to-buy

Your eyes will light up, celebrity

Get the same new bag as celebrities

a rarefied world

hottest

GUILTY FREE

a Mad Hatter's tea party

BECAUSE YOU ALREADY HAVE PLENTY